Sally's Suitcase

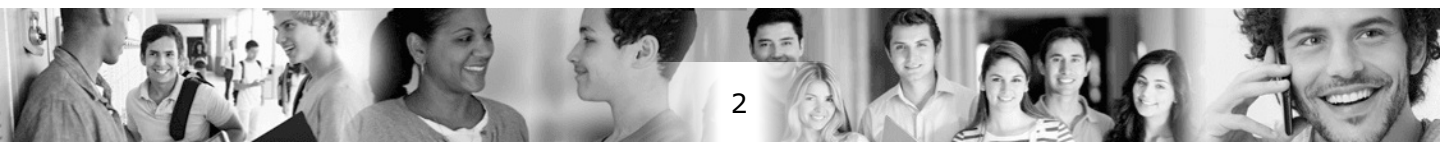

What is the best way to travel?

When you choose your method of transport, you should consider how far you are going. Between countries, airplanes are best.

On a continent like Europe, you can take the train between countries, or even the bus! In South America, many people take cruises between islands. It is the best way to sightsee.

What should I do when I travel by bus?

You should pack lightly. There is limited space for bags on board the bus. Print your itinerary so you know when the rest stops are. Using the bathroom on a bus is not fun! Bring books or games to occupy your time. Don't forget to stretch before you get on---the seats are small!
