Let's Start!

How's life on the cruise ship? Fantastic!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about travel and vacations in social situations.

Ask your partner:

- When you visit a country, what souvenirs do you buy?
- What souvenirs do you like to get from people? Why?

Can Do Statements

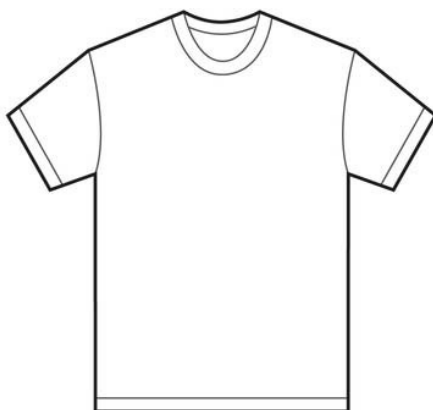

- I can talk about things to do on a trip.
- I can talk about what people are doing.
- I can talk about my plans and intentions.

Let's Explore!

John calls Peter and tells him about his trip. What is Peter doing?

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Peter: Hello?
John: Hey, Peter! It's John!
Peter: Hey! How's life on the cruise ship?
John: Fantastic! How are things with you?
Peter: The same old ... Tell me about your trip!
John: Well, I'm going to take a group on a day trip to the market in San Jose.
Peter: Cool!
John: Yeah, it's a really interesting open-air market. We are going to taste some traditional Costa Rican foods and go shopping for knick-knacks.
Peter: Don't forget to buy me something!
John: Like what?
Peter: How about a T-shirt?
John: A T-shirt? That's it? No handicrafts?
Peter: I don't know ...
John: OK, I'm writing that down ... no handicrafts for Peter ...
Peter: Ok, I have to go. I'm doing some homework right now ...
John: Cool, man. Good luck! Let's talk again soon!
Peter: Bye!
