

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

What are your symptoms? Let's visit the doctor.

Learning Outcome

Relate information about health and healthy habits in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- How often do you go to the doctor?
- Do you sometimes avoid going? Why?

Can Do Statements

- I can describe a health problem.
- I can express advisability, necessity, or requirement.
- I can give instructions or directions.

Let's Explore!

John visits the doctor. What seems to be the problem?

* The doctor asks this to find out why you are visiting.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Dr. Stevens: Come in, please.

John: Good morning, Doctor.

Dr. Stevens: Good morning, John. What seems to be the problem?

John: Well, I'm really not feeling well.

Dr. Stevens: What are your symptoms?

John: I have a stomach ache, headache, sore throat and a runny nose.

Dr. Stevens: I see. Do you have a cough?

John: No.

Dr. Stevens: An earache?

John: No.

Dr. Stevens: Ok. It sounds like you have the flu.

John: I think I have a slight fever.

Dr. Stevens: Open your mouth. I want to take your temperature. Hm, 37.5 degrees - a little high. You must take this medicine, twice a day.

John: I have to?! Yes, Doctor.

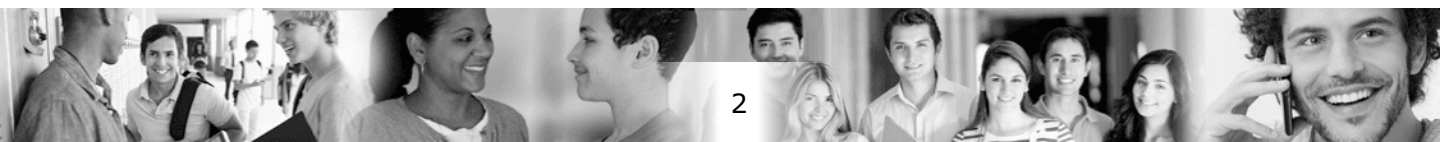

Dr. Stevens: You should also get some rest.

John: Could I have a sick note, please?

Dr. Stevens: Sure. Here you are. Don't forget to take the medicine twice a day.

John: Yes, Doctor. Thank you.

Dr. Stevens: You're welcome. Take care.

Let's Practice!

What are your symptoms?

Instructions: Read the dialogue again. Underline all the sentences that are NOT correct about John's symptoms.

I have a stomach ache. I have a headache. I don't have a sore throat. I have a runny nose.

I have a cough. I don't have an earache. I have the flu. I have a high fever.

Let's Practice!

You should practice your writing, too!

Instructions: Find and fix the mistake. Each sentence has 1 mistake.

1. You most take this medicine, twice a day.
2. You should also got some rest.
3. You must staying home and sleep.
4. You shed eat well.
5. You mist exercise every day.

Extension Activity

Let's role play! Practice visiting the doctor with your partner.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Read each role below.
- Choose one role, and practice a dialogue with your partner.
- Give suggestions and advice.
- Switch roles and practice again.

Role 1: You are a doctor. Someone visits you. Ask about their symptoms. Give them suggestions and advice.

Role 2: You visit the doctor. Describe your symptoms. Ask for a sick note to give to your boss.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I ask about symptoms of an illness.

☐ ☐

I describe symptoms of an illness.

☐ ☐

I give suggestions and advice on getting better.

☐ ☐

I make a request.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- symptom (noun): sign of a sickness
e.g. My symptoms are a headache and a runny nose.
- fever (noun): a rise in body temperature
e.g. I have a high fever, I need to go to the hospital.
- slight (adjective): small, not significant e.g. I have a slight fever.
- earache (noun): pain inside the ear
e.g. I have an earache because I have water in my ear.
- to take (verb): to eat or drink medicine
e.g. You must take this medicine every day.
- cough (noun): release air from the lungs suddenly e.g. I've had a cough for 2 days, my chest hurts and my throat is sore.
- temperature (noun): measurement of how hot or cold something is e.g. I want to take your temperature.
- the flu (noun): influenza
e.g. I have sore throat and a runny nose, I must have the flu.
- sick note (noun): a note the doctor writes explaining why someone was absent from work e.g. Could I have a sick note, please?

Learning Points

Visiting the Doctor

In North America, people visit a health clinic to see a doctor. They visit the hospital only if it is a serious health problem or an emergency.

In North America, when you visit a doctor or hospital, you need to pay a lot of money for the service. Many people have health insurance to not have to pay a lot of money.

The Imperative

You use the Imperative to give instructions.
The Imperative only has one form. The subject is you.

We often hear the Imperative at the doctor's office.

Examples:

- Come in, please.
- Open your mouth.
- Don't forget to take the medicine twice a day.
- Take care.

