Let's Explore!

John emails Sally about his visit to San Jose. What is interesting?

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Dear Sally,

Greetings from Costa Rica! We arrived two days ago. We are in San Jose, the biggest city in the country. I'm having a great time. San Jose has the most interesting museums. The streets are crowded and there are a lot of sounds!

The markets are filled with foods that I don't recognize, like platanos (a banana-like fruit) and yucca (a root vegetable). I even tried some delicious yucca chips. Wow!

The restaurants are also astounding and cheaper than the ones at home. Don't eat the street food - my coworker got very ill and had a stomach ache for a week!

I have to go now. Tomorrow we are going to the Irazcu Volcano. Imagine, an active volcano!

I hope you are well!

John

Learning Points

The Simple Past Tense

You use the Simple Past tense to talk about events that are finished.

Remember, there are Regular and Irregular verbs.

Simple Past tense verbs can be regular or irregular.

Regular verbs end in -ed or -ied.

Irregular verbs change in different ways.

For questions in the past, you use the auxiliary did followed by the verb in the base form, like Did you ask ... ?

Did is the past form of to do.

Examples:

- We arrived two days ago.
- We went to the markets.
- My coworkers got very sick.
- I even tried some new foods!
- Did you have a good time?

The Present Continuous Tense

You use the Present Continuous tense to talk about current actions; things happening NOW.

You form the Present Continuous tense by using the be-verb and by adding -ing to the base form of the verb.

I AM goING

She/He IS travelING

They ARE buyING

Examples:

- I am having a great time.
- He is traveling in Costa Rica.
